

Costing the earth — will cheap oil destroy CCU?

Impacts and calls for action

Venue: DECHEMA-Haus, Frankfurt am Main, Germany

Date/Hour: 23 March 2016, 09:30-15:30

Invitees: Academic/Industrial Experts

Invitation: University of Sheffield (CO2Chem), DECHEMA (CO2Net)

09:30 Registration / Coffee

10:00 Welcome & Moderation

Dr. Alexis Bazzanella, DECHEMA

10:10 Introduction to SCOT

Dr. Youssef Travaly, SCOT Project Director, GREENWIN

10:30 Fossil fuel market price downswing – the current situation

Laurent Forti, IFPEN

10:50 Can the EU ETS incentivize CO₂ utilisation?

Nick Rothengatter, University of Sheffield

11:10 Coffee break

11:30 Threats to overcome for CCU developments

Hans Bolscher, Trinomics

11:50 Effects on low value chain products

Eelko Dekker, Methanol Institute

12:10 Effects on the Power to X sector

Dennis Krämer, DECHEMA

12:20 Discussion

13:00 Light lunch

13:45 Wrap up

Prof. Peter Styring, University of Sheffield

14:00 Consensus finding – What should be anchored in the Joint Action Plan (JAP)

15:30 Closure